

U.S. INFORMATION AGENCY
87-183

C13555F1

MUSEUM -- The National Museum of Women in the Arts stands on a corner in Washington two blocks from the White House. The building was completed in 1907 as a Masonic Temple and later housed a movie theater. (87-183-C)

