

C13561F2

C13561F2

WAGONS ROLL NORTH -- A horse-drawn wagon train passes before the Reflecting Pool and Washington Monument in the U.S. capital city. The caravan was one of five converging on Valley Forge in Pennsylvania for a Bicentennial encampment. Conestoga wagons and Prairie Schooners from all the 50 States participated in the year-long journeys. At right center is part of the American Folk Life Festival on the Mall.

(76-1604)