

C8524 F1

COLECCIÓN FOTOS EMBAJADA EE.UU.

82-242 E

DISARMAMENT REVIEW -- Current arms talks with the Soviet Union was the main focus of this meeting as chief U.S. negotiator Paul Nitze conferred with President Ronald Reagan and other leaders in the Oval Office of the White House in Washington. From left are National Security adviser William Clark, Secretary of State Alexander Haig, Mr. Reagan, Mr. Nitze, Arms Control and Disarmament Agency director Eugene Rostow and Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger. The situation in Poland was also discussed. (82-242-C)

C8524 F1

