MEDAL FOR HOROWITZ -- Pianist Vladimir Horowitz smiles as First Lady Nancy Reagan places the Medal of Freedom around his neck during ceremonies at the White House in Washington. Looking on are Mrs. Horowitz and President Ronald Reagan. Mr. Reagan told the 81-year-old Horowitz that his recent televised concert in the Soviet Union "reminded us of the common humanity of all people." The citation for the medal, the nations highest civilian decoration, said the he "brings not only meaning to music, but joy and beauty and meaning to our lives."
