

News photography -- New York Daily News for its consistently excellent news picture coverage in 1955, an outstanding example of which is its photograph, "Bomber Crashes in Street," taken from a Daily News plane minutes after the crash.

Cartoons -- Robert York, of the Louisville (Kentucky) Times, for an editorial cartoon titled "Achilles," showing a bulging figure of American prosperity tapering to a weak heel labelled "Farm Prices." He has been with the Times since 1937.

Drama -- "The Diary of Anne Frank," by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett. A play based on the book by Anne Frank about eight Jews in Amsterdam during World War II. This husband and wife team has been collaborating in New York and Hollywood for 25 years.

