The fifth outdoor celebration honoring General of the Army Douglas MacArthur on his first visit to the United States in 14 years was held recently in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Civic and academic honors were conferred on the General by the city, which he calls his home. He had not been in Milwaukee since 1912 when he was there for the funeral of his father.

The photograph shows General MacArthur (at microphones, center foreground) speaking to more than 35,000 people gathered in MacArthur Square in downtown Milwaukee. (51-7022P)
