

LANDING SITES -- Map of Mars shows the landing sites of Viking I in the Chryse Plain and Viking II in the Utopia Plain. The latter is at the edge of the Martian northern polar cap, melted by the summer sun at the time of the landing on September 3. Viking I landed on July 20. The two sites are about 6500 kilometers apart. (76-1878)

C2059F6

