PEACEFUL SPACE EXPLORATION -- U.S. PROGRESS AND PLANS

Part II - "SATELLITES AND PROBES"

14-15 The two shadowy figures in front of a device that looks like a huge cobweb are technicians watching the flight of a space vehicle on a tracking board. This device at Cape Canaveral, Florida, has been used to follow the course of many space shots, including astronaut Glenn's capsule in orbital flight. (62-1583)
