MEDALS OF DIFFERENT METAL -- American speedskater Sheila Young proudly displays the three medals she won at the Olympic Winter Games in Innsbruck, Austria. The 25-year-old native of Detroit (Michigan) won a gold in the 500-meter, a silver in the 1500-meter and a bronze in the 1,000-meter events. She became the first American to win three medals in a Winter

Olympics.   (76-65)
