

EMOTIONAL MOMENT -- Edwin Moses (right) and Mike Shine of the United States hug each other after they won the gold and silver medals, respectively, in the 400-meter hurdles at the Olympic Games in Montreal. Moses, a native of Dayton, Ohio, ran the course in the world record time of 47.64 seconds to break the old mark of 47.82 set by John Akii Bua of Uganda in 1972. (76-1637)

C25513F3

