

HOSPITAL VISIT -- Former President Dwight Eisenhower chats with President Lyndon B. Johnson November 17 at Bethesda Naval Hospital in Maryland. Mr. Johnson entered the hospital the day before. Physicians successfully removed a small non-malignant growth in the President's throat and repaired an incisional hernia in his abdomen. The latter stemmed from a kidney operation he underwent a year earlier. (66-3630)

