

FIVE-STORY ART -- Citizens of San Francisco (California) stop to gaze at "Sky Train," a 29-ton black steel creation by famed American sculptress Louise Nevelson. The 16.4-meter-tall work of art, installed in the Embarcadero Center, was transported across the country by truck from Connecticut, where it had been constructed.

C1155F6

(77-1847)

